Our Opiate Overdose Kit page has been updated

Overdose prevention kits containing Naloxone are available at no cost to Stark County residents. Naloxone is a medication that can reverse an overdose caused by an opioid drug (heroin or Rx pain medications). If you know someone using opiates, get a kit and be prepared to save a life.

Look through the list of locations to see which one is closest to you here.

You can also order a kit by mail by visiting here.

September is dedicated to two important themes:
National Suicide Prevention Month and National Recovery Month.

Want to learn about the difficult topic of suicide? Keep a close eye on the Stark County Suicide Prevention Coalition for information and updates.

And learn more about suicide prevention here.

Sept. 10 is World Suicide Prevention day

Are you or someone you know living in recovery?

This month, it's extra important to recognize and celebrate those living in recovery. Take time to send a note, make a call, or meet up! And if you're connected to a local service provider, keep an eye out for special Recovery Week events.
